THE BEAUTIFUL IN LIFE

Every day we should have at least one little smile, read some poem or look at one choice picture—gladly.

Calendar for Wednesday.

Charles D. L. Collier entertained with luncheon at Tropicana for Misses Anna Kennedy.

District Titles Judge B. P. O. E. at Eliza's home.

Hysters and literatures club meets at the home of Mrs. M. L. Freerick.

Eccumenic club meeting at Library.

Mrs. George Winkler entertains fiction club.

Meeting of Tulsa Registered Nurses association of library.

Mrs. Fulton Laine in hospice to Neocraft club.

Luncheon Committee.

Miss Lee Clinton will entertain at luncheon today in courtesy to Mrs. W. E. Bowen and Mrs. C. F. Hopkins, who are recent visitors to Tulsa society from Dallas. Places will be set for 12 guests who have been invited to meet the two matrons.

Pretty "At Home."

Mrs. A. C. Nixon and Mrs. James Treat received informally yesterday afternoon in the Nixon home to meet Mrs. John W. Duke and Miss Bethia Bishop of Guthrie, who came to town to attend the opera with Mrs. Nixon and Mrs. Treat's sister, Mrs. McLean Adams of Buffalo.

A color note of yellow and white was prettily and effectively expressed in the decorations of chrysanthemums and in all the appointments throughout, some 600 of these flowers were welcomed before the hour of 12 and their presentation to the decorations group formed by the two hostesses and their guests of honor was made by Mrs. Frank E. Shaffnerberger, Mrs. S. E. Dunn and Mrs. Frank Berney. While the guests lingered to meet the hostesses and mingle with friends there was pleasant entertainment in the program of readings and songs by Miss Frank H. Greer, Mrs. Frederick J. Postophysical and Mrs. Harry D. Murdoch. Guests in the dining room were joined by Mrs. J. Wesley West and Mrs. Lee C. Welsh, who pourt, and were assisted by Mademoiselle Robert Galen, W. V. Biddison, J. E. Kirkbride and Fred Raab.

The next of the series, with the two matrons as hostesses, will be an at home with Mrs. Treat early in December.

Informal Reception.

Mrs. G. N. Wright was at home quite informally yesterday afternoon when she kept receiving hours from 3 until 6 to meet a group of Oklahoma City matrons and young women, including Mademoiselle Ed Overholser, G. A. Welch, Alice Rose, Errol Ferguson, Keir, M. L. Tammie, Hubbard and Grace, the Misses Hoffmann, who were here for the opera season.

It was an altogether pleasant and happy afternoon, commencing with a motor ride over the city for the visitors, after which the matrons and young women from the capital city were presented to 75 or more Tulsa women who called. The home of the Wrights was brightened gloriously with sprays of autumn foliage and many lovely flowers, which were the gift of friends; the dining room being especially attractive in yellow chrysanthemums and a large centerpiece of trout. Mrs. Wright was assisted in receiving and entertaining by Mademoiselle Howard N. Cole, E. O. Carter, M. E. Stanley, Edwin C. Lawhon, W. A. Angers, W. C. Steger, L. Billingsley, Laing G. Bradstreet, D. C. Richardson, Eugene Linton, Don Hatch, L. M. Fox, Walter Jacobs, Hollie Fox, Johnson, D. Palmer, Henry S. Condon, Clark, and the Misses Helen Carter and Peppieth.

Dinner Party.

Mr. John Rogers and Mr. Fred Chapman entertained with a dinner party last evening at Hotel Tulsa, complimentary to Miss Elsie Potter of Ardmore, who is the guest of Miss Pauline McFarlin.

The decorations were of red roses, which were arranged in the dinner rooms for hosts of the day, and covers were laid for the Misses Potter, McFarlin, Helen Goettrey and Marie Diamond of Hollidale; Mrs. Jack Cleary, George Reeves and the hosts.

Display of Art.

Miss Lee Clinton will enter into the display of canvas on Mr. Thomas R. Condon of Paris and New York, which is to be held under the auspices of the Timothy Cook and Roisman Art Club of the Capital. It has been set for Friday afternoon when women of the best clubs will be hostesses of the informal reception preceding the exhibit. Invitations for the reception and display, which will extend over several days, are to all those who may be interested.

Luncheon.

Miss McAlister shared honors in an attractive luncheon party which Mrs. J. F. Latham gave yesterday afternoon in her honor.

The new home of Mrs. and Mrs. Latham in Maple Hills was beautiful in decorations of chrysanthemums and the table was a picture in the flowers combined with yellow tulips, carnations, pink carnations and candy drops by Mrs. Cole and Miss Isobel Fonda, assisting hostess.

Subscription Dance.

Young men of the Bonanza club have announced a subscription dance for members of the organization and its friends Friday evening, November 3, at the Elks' home.

The club is also planning formal dances for the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons.

At Luncheon.

Mrs. Carl H. Hudson entertained informally at luncheon yesterday afternoon, extending the courtesy of the affair to three visitors, Mrs. G. E. Vandevere, Frank Hudson and Mrs. Lee C. Welsh, who pourt, and were assisted by Mademoiselle Robert Galen, W. V. Biddison, J. E. Kirkbride and Fred Raab.

The next of the series, with the two matrons as hostesses, will be an at home with Mrs. Treat early in December.

Informal Reception.

Mrs. Clara Fisher Brown and Miss Jennie Lyman have set Thursday, November 16, as the date of an informational tea with which they will entertain their friends in the Brown home, 712 South Denver avenue.

An annual open meeting in the Tropicana Room was an exceedingly gay thousandth session of yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. James B. Cole where the matrons and young women from the capital city were presented to 75 or more Tulsa women who called. The principal feature was a talk on "Historic New England" by Rev. C. V. Kling, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, who is a close student of the history of this and other countries. His talk was interesting, being descriptive of the early days, people and institutional life of our mother civilization. Mrs. Fred S. Clinton had a paper on "Old French Quarter in New Orleans," and the music was by Mr. W. R. Guiberson and Mrs. Thomas H. Condon, visiting artist of Paris and New York, gave a brief talk on "How to Paint Pictures"; less and cakes were served by Mrs. Cole and Miss Isobel Fonda, assisting hostess.

A Laxative for Babies Good for Everybody

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN A SAFE AND EFFICIENT FAMILY REMEDY.

Every member of the family is more or less subject to constipation and every house should always be supplied with a dependable remedy to promptly relieve this condition. Whenever the bowels become clogged and the natural process of elimination thereby disturbed, the entire system is affected and readily subject to attack by disease. Constipation is a condition which should be avoided.

Miss J. R. Gilbert of Millboro, Va., says that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a reliable laxative for children because they like its pleasant taste and it acts easily and naturally without griping or strain, and she finds it equally effective for the rest of the family.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, that contains no opiate or narcotic drug. It is mild and gentle in its action and does not cause any disagreeable effects. It is a good laxative for children.

To avoid irritation and ineffective substitutes be sure you get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a fac-
